Chardonnay

The most common and well-known variety of white grape in wine production today. The most prominent flavor in Chardonnay wine comes from oak used in the wine production process. Other flavors and aromas include fruit, lemon, melon, grass, and vanilla. Some other characteristics of Chardonnay wines are dryness yet a full body with a crisp acidity and a velvety finish in the mouth.

Syrah or Shiraz

A robust, dark-skinned variety producing equally powerful and full-bodied wines. It shows aromas and flavors of black fruits, pepper and mint, developing notes of liquorice, espresso and chocolate in hotter conditions and, with age, leather, truffles and earthy aromas. Syrah is often the best wine for all types of roasted, grilled or smoked meat dishes like; duck, beef, veal, sausage and chicken dishes. Syrah based wines and game make a perfect wine and food pairing.

Mannara Terre Siciliane Syrah, Italy

Cabernet Sauvignon

Probably the most famous red wine grape variety on earth. Wherever they come from, Cabernet Sauvignon wines always seem to demonstrate a handful of common character traits: deep color, good tannin structure, moderate acidity and aromas of blackcurrant, tomato leaf, dark spices and cedar wood.
